

RADIO, TV AND NEW MEDIA AWARDS Call for Entries

Cash awards for excellence in reporting on German-American issues are presented annually by the RIAS BERLIN COMMISSION, with prizes in the three categories: Radio, TV and New Media. Eligible are all kinds of reports on German topics aired in the U.S. or on U.S. topics aired in Germany or other programs with German-American aspects in the fields of international politics, economics, social issues, cultural developments or current events.

Especially welcome are entries by RIAS Fellows (former program participants), for whom a new award category has been created!

RADIO AND TV AWARDS

Entries must be radio or television stories aired in 2009 and may be single stories or multi-part series. There is no length requirement. All entries must be submitted on CD or DVD and labeled with the applicant's name and telephone number.

Entries must include:

- your name, title, business address, phone, fax, e-mail
- air date(s) of your story and its running length
- title and a brief description of your story
- a brief description of your role in the production of the story

NEW MEDIA AWARD

for the creative use of the internet on relevant German or American topics posted in 2009.

Entries must be submitted in the form of printed samples from functioning websites. Entries may, in addition, be submitted on CD ROM.

Accurate web addresses leading to the website(s) must be transmitted both in print and by e-mail to the RIAS BERLIN COMMISSION. Entered websites must be active and accessible by the jury at the time of judging.

Web productions must use commonly available technologies (not proprietary ones which limit access).

Entries must include your name, title, business address, phone, fax and e-mail and a brief description of your entry and your role in it.
